The VISTAs interviewed volunteers and staff, reviewed past policies and procedures and designed a volunteer checklist that will be implemented at Twice as Nice Resale Store, the agency's fundraising arm. They continue to develop volunteer training. They have completed two new training seminars for the volunteers serving at the agency's Twice As Nice Resale store. The book department training and the bomb threat and terroristic activity training are equipped with activities and quizzes to test and gauge volunteers' understanding of these two areas. The training seminars will instill a sense of confidence and ownership in the volunteers and will aid them to find proper solutions to stressful circumstances. The Logistics VISTA's job is to create policy and procedures that will be continued on in the future and will help create sustainable processes. She has created a Toy Department and Book Department policy to be used in the warehouse and standard operation procedures to help train volunteers and is working to finish policies for all store departments. She continues to develop health and safety policy and procedures, such as a fire escape plan, Bomb Threat Procedure, Natural Disaster Procedures, Evacuation Procedure and a new Injury/Accident Form. In order to disseminate safety policy to volunteers, the VISTA implemented daily safety briefs that include new topics every week. The VISTAs play an integral role in the agency's fundraisers and events. They are responsible for recruiting and training volunteers needed as well as developing the social media marketing for each event. Once trained, these volunteers take ownership over the tasks set before them. Through the efforts of the VISTA members, the agency has raised $161,301 through fundraising activities and garnered $300 in in-kind donations. Monies raised help Woman to Woman offer free health services to low-income women in Denton County. Anti-Poverty Measures: Since August 2015, Woman to Woman Pregnancy Resource Center has assisted 1,169 women receive health care services. This number represents first time visits only and does not include follow-up visits.	09/09/2016 17:02:04	10/27/2016 17:17:05

Sponsor Note	The VISTA Project at Youth and Family Counseling began with the placement of the first VISTA in November 2015. The VISTA member has begun familiarizing herself with the agency's needs, developing fundraising strategies and researching grants. The VISTA has contributed to the writing of several grants and has assisted with the agency's fundraising efforts. In total, the agency has raised $21,200. The VISTA has also been able to procure $3,363 in in-kind donations to be used as silent auction items at the annual fundraiser. The funds are to be used to support the agency's Community Referred Counseling Program, providing scholarship sessions to youth and their family whom cannot afford our lowest fee. In order to promote sustainability, the VISTA created a volunteer survey to be used to evaluate volunteer satisfaction and help retain volunteers. She has created spreadsheets to be used for tracking the	09/09/2016 17:03:04	10/27/2016 17:17:05
